

A Screening Solution for Every Worker Representing Your Brand

Anyone Who Represents Your Brand Represents You

Contractors, drivers, freelancers and volunteers aren't just extra help for your company. They're your extended workforce. And in the eyes of your customers, they're just as much a part of your brand as your full-time employees. So if you're not screening them the same way you do your traditional employees, you could be making a costly mistake!

Make Screening Your Extended Workforce Easy

Now you can ensure that you're leveraging reliable, qualified and secure individuals, and that your employees are working side-by-side with people you can trust to represent your brand in a positive way.

- Zero-cost options available when workforce screens are covered directly by the source organization
- Mobile friendly, candidate-powered workflows
- Continuous monitoring options
- Digital badging capabilities
