

Get More Out of Your Tax Incentive Programs

Gain Visibility Into the Incentive Process

When your organization is pursuing and engaged in multiple tax incentive programs, it can be challenging to monitor and track the progress of each project. Without visibility into and across the incentive process, you could miss important opportunities, or not receive the full value of your incentives due to non-compliance.

Incentive Advantage from First Advantage can help accelerate and improve your incentive process by providing real-time dashboard visibility into tax programs. It's a permission-based, single-sign-on incentive management tool that enables businesses to access detailed tax program analytics, program documentation, forecasting capabilities and much more.

Optimize All Opportunities with a Centralized Process

Incentive Advantage creates a shared space for your team to manage all tax incentive programs. It provides a secure centralized environment for coordinating, storing and tracking all incentive tasks and documents. This helps your team:

- Streamline and accelerate your incentive process.
- Improve collaboration across internal departments and outside your organization.
- Optimize all current and future incentive opportunities by seeing the bigger picture.
- Increase long-term incentive values by better managing incentive compliance.
